We are extremely delighted to present Auction No. 105, Pune. Hosting this event in Pune feels like returning home, especially after the resounding success of Auction No. 101 held last year, which featured the Late Sri Pramod Vernekar's exceptional collection of South Indian coins and other rare pieces. As always, we strive to curate cherry-picked items for our esteemed collectors, and this auction is no exception.

Also featured are a Gold Gadyana of the Chindaka Nagas and a highly coveted, high-grade Double Pagoda (Dodda Honnu) of Krishnadevaraya from the Vijayanagar Empire. • Sultanate Section: Rare finds include a Gold Tanka of Ahasan Shah from the Madura Sultanate. • Mughal Section: Extraordinary pieces like an exceedingly rare 1/4 Rupee Nisar and a Burhanpur Mint Gold Mohur of Emperor Jahangir are included, along with other rare Mughal coins. • Additional Highlights: Exceptional collections from the Maratha, Sikh, Assam, Cooch Behar, Mysore, and Tripura regions, along with numerous high-grade and extremely rare coins from Princely States, the East India Company, and Colonial eras. The auction also features a fine selection of medals, tokens, and paper money of particular note is a part collection of Shri I.K. Kejariwalji, which includes Post-Gupta Bengal Gold Dinars from the Samatata region. In short, this auction promises something special for every collector.

To right, a cockerel standard (Kukkuta Dhawaja) in railing (Pieper# 2451). Very fine, extremely rare.

Subena appears to be an independent local ruler in Eastern Vidarbha and his coins show great similarity with those of Suryamitra and Satyabhadra II, the two local rulers. We know Suryamitra was a close contemporary of Satavahana king Satakani. Subena was perhaps a slightly earlier ruler. His name indicates his association with river Bena, which was a major river in the region (present-day Wainganga).

Realised ` ..... Estimate: ` 6,000-7,000

- 17 Ancient Vidarbha, Satavahana, Bhon region, Uninscribed die-struck, Copper, 8.53g, "River Goddess" type, Obv: symbolic composition – wheel with arrow spokes, modified 'Ujjain' symbol, triangle-headed standard and representation of river goddess, standing facing with fish in one hand, Rev: Tree in railing within a dotted border partly visible (Unpublished in major sources). Very fine, very rare.

Coins of this type are sometimes found with Brahmi legend 'Siri Gola' on the reverse. They are often counterstruck over other specimens. The series constitutes one of the earliest inscribed coinages in the Deccan.

18 Satavahanas, Tripuri/Eastern Malwa region, Siri Satakani, Lead, 4.66g, "Human figure" type, Obv: 'Ujjain' symbol with one orb modified with crescent in centre; Brahmi legend clockwise "Raño Siri Satakanino" around, Rev: Human figure standing in centre, three-arched hill topped by an elephant to left, tree-in-railing to right and two wavy lines with fishes below. Extremely fine, extremely rare in this grade.

The legend on this coin ends in '-No' as a genitive case suffix (Satakanino) instead of the usual '-Sa' (Satakanisa). Although grammatically accurate, it is surprisingly not seen on any other type of Satavahana coins.

Realised ` ..... Estimate: ` 12,000-15,000

19 Satavahanas, Vasishthiputra Sri Satakarni, Silver Drachma, 2.32g, "Portrait" type, Obv: Bust with curly long hair & prominent nose and thick lips, wearing a high head ornament, Brahmi legend "Rano Vasithiputasa Siri Satakanisa" around Rev: Four orb Ujjayini symbol, six-arched hill with a crescent, Sun and river flowing below, Southern Brahmi - Tamil-Telugu / Prakrit legends around. Very fine, rare.

Hatakaniku" around. Very fine, very rare.

Realised ` ..... Estimate: ` 10,000-15,000

22 Satavahanas, Gotamputa Siri Siva Satakani, Lead, 9.15g, Bhokardan Region, "Lion" type, Obv: Maned Lion facing left, Brahmi legend "Rano Gotami....." around, Rev: Tree-in-railing, modified Ujjain symbol to left. Very fine, very rare.

Realised ` ..... Estimate: ` 3,000-4,000

23 Western Kshatrapas, Kshaharata house, Nahapana as 'Mahakshatrapa', Junnar region, lead, 15.98g, "Lion" type, Obv: Majestic lion with mane, standing in front of a plough-headed standard in railing, placed above triangle-headed standard, with Shrivatsa near its mouth; three-arched hill below belly and curvy line below platform. Brahmi legend "Raño Mahakhatapasa Nahapanasa" around, Rev: Thunderbolt, long arrow and a strung bow-and-arrow symbols (Fishman 8.3). Extremely fine, extremely rare in this grade.

Sometimes around or after 70AD, the Kshaharatas spread their rule deep into the Satavahana territory, marking the apogee of their conflict with the Satavahanas. Nahapana assumed the title of 'Mahakshatrapa' at this time consolidating his alliance with other local rulers like Vasithiputa Isamula. Lion-type coins were struck at Junnar, the regional capital, in continuation of the Satavahana coinage but now with Nahapana's name and emblems. This astonishingly well-preserved piece is probably the best ever found in the large denomination lead series. It is well struck and has a complete legend and a full representation of features like the lion and the dynastic emblem on the reverse.

Realised ` ..... Estimate: ` 1,00,000-1,50,000

Krishnadevaraya
Dodda Honnu / Double Pagoda

49 Vijaynagar Empire, Krishnadevaraya, Gold Dodda Honnu or Double Pagoda, 7.78g, Obv: Four-armed Lord Venkateshwara of Tirupati standing under Makara Thoranam (ornamental archway) is a decorative arch frame that surrounds the idol of the deity. The frame consists of two pedestals and an arch. The Makara, a guardian figure, is placed on the two pedestals to protect the idol. At the top of the arch is a Keerti-mukha figurine, a typical architectural element. Kneeling Narasimha decorates the pedestal bases. God wearing tapering crown (Karanda-mukuta), Crocodile shaped ear-ornaments (Makara-kundalas), Bhuja-keerthi (arm ornaments), anklets, a medallion, necklaces, and other jewelled attributes shown by a flowing array of dots and lines. He holds Shankha and Chakra in his upper hands, and makes the gesture of benevolence (Varada-mudra), and kati hasta mudra symbolizing the dispensing of boons and the protection with lower right hand, Rev: Devanagari legend in three lines "Sri / Krishna R / ya" within a double circular border (Mitch# 1088). Uncirculated, exceedingly rare.

This extremely rare and important coin is perhaps one of the 30000 coins specially struck by Krishnadeva Raya in 1516, to perform a Kanakabhishekam ("Shower of Gold") ceremony at the Tirupati temple, to thank the Lord for his victory over the Kondavidu and Gajapati dynasties of neighbouring Andhra-Orissa country. It shows a truly splendid depiction of Venkateshwara, in all its jewelled glory on obverse. As compared with it the simplicity of the reverse stands out as a testimony to the King's devotion and subservience to the Lord. A numismatic masterpiece!

In England, the gold ryals (rose-nobles) with a 120-grain standard were introduced in 1465 AD, which is equivalent to 7.8 gm. In May 1522, an official proclamation recognized the circulation of foreign gold in England and fixed the values of certain coins. During Krishnadeva Raya's reign, the 120-grain gold ryals were in use as English currency. This may explain the rationale behind the Gold Honnu weight of 7.8gm

A small stash of Vijayanagara gold coins was discovered in May 2024 near Hospet, about 14 km from Hampi, the capital of the Vijayanagara Empire. The hoard featured just a few 'Dodda Honnu', no more than can be counted on one's fingers, and about 150 Pratapa and Varaha gold coins issued by Krishnadeva Raya and his successor, Achyutaraya. Most of the Varaha and Pratapa coins were poorly made, with less than 10% being in collectible condition. Golden chance to acquire for collectors.

 Coins of this variety were discovered in a small hoard ay Yeoor, near Thane, north of Mumbai. They are most likely to be issues of local rulers, who established themselves as vassals of the Delhi Sultans in the immediate aftermath of the fall of the Yadava kingdom of Devagiri and its successor state in the North Konkan region. We know the names of some of them, like Hambira Rao and Aluji Nakhwa, from inscriptional sources.

Ahsan Shah was the first sultan to break off from the Delhi Sultanate in the south. The Sultanate was short-lived and it succumbed to Vijayanagara Empire in about fifty years. The mint-name on this coin is inscribed as 'Madhura' which was the Sanskrit form of the Tamil name 'Madurai'. Ibn Batuta, the famous traveller was at the court of Ahsan Shah and even married his daughter. He describes this coin-type in his account, although the legend he provides in his description is a variation of what is seen on this coin. No coins corroborating this description were known till recently, when a few pieces turned up. His titles 'Abu al-Dhua'afa wa al-Misakeen' (Father of the weak and the destitute) is unique in the repertoire of titulature held by Indian sultans.

Tatta is the rarest mint for Humayun's Shahrukhis. Only two or three specimens are known to date. Humayun's tryst with Sindh began soon after his flight from Lahore to save himself from an impending attack by Sher Shah Suri, hot on his pursuit after the defeat in their battle of Kannauj. Humayun sought refuge with Shah Hussain Arghun of Sindh when his brother Kamran deserted him and went for Kabul. The relations with Shah Hussain were strained, however Humayun managed to secure a base in North Sindh. Here, his son Akbar was born in Umarkot (Sind).

Known specimens of Shahrukhis struck at Thatta are from his second reign. Sindh continued to be held by the Arghuns, however as they were a weak state they possibly accepted the sovereignty of Humayun. This specimen is dateless but bears close similarity to a coin dated AH963 which is listed on Zeno (#85168).

- 136 Aurangzeb, Silver Rupee, 11.53g, Adoni Mint, dated RY 30, A highly unusual mule of two reverse dies. Extremely fine, exceedingly rare.
 Adoni, later known as Imtiazgarh is a town in Kurool district of Andhra Pradesh. The fort of Adoni was a very strong Military post of Adil Shahi Sultans of Bijapur, having a strong Garrison of 30000 Troops. The Mughals took the fortress from Sidi Masud, the commander of Sultan Sikandar Adil Shah after a protracted siege. During the siege, two types of coins appear to have been issued, either by the Mughals to pay the troops, or by Sidi Masud, to mark his acceptance of the Mughal suzerainty. One of them has the mint-name 'Dar al-Zafar Qila'a Advani' while the other has only 'Adoni'. Both are extremely rare, only known from 3-4 extant pieces. This coin combines the two reverses with mint-names and thus is a mule but bringing together reverse dies of a short-lived issue. Soon afterwards Adoni was renamed 'Imtiazgarh' and became a fairly productive mint under the rule of local Nawabs.

Nizams of local 'Chalnee' issues. Medak is one of the rarest late Mughal mints with less than five coins known so far. It was a Hindu 'Samsthana' under the Nizam of Hyderabad ruled by a Zamindar Raja. Sadasiva Reddy was the ruler of Medak in mid-18th century. He leased the town of Medak to the French General Monsieur Raymond when the latter intervened in succession dispute following the death of Asaf Jah I in 1749. This arrangement continued till Raymond's death in 1798. This coin is struck under Raymond's tenure.

266 Silver Trishuli Rupee, 11.36g, Pseudo Mint name Arkat but may struck some were in South Maharashtra / North Karnataka region, in the name of Shah Alam II, Trident as a mint mark (Not listed in Wiggins). About extremely fine for type, rare.

Rupees of this type were attributed to Danish India"- Tranquebar on the basis of the AH/Ry combination by Uno Jensen. However, their find-spots are invariably located in the South Maharashtra / North Karnataka region, where the 'Arcot' Rupees had been popular as standard currency and even inspired issues of Maratha mints such as Dharwad. There is a good chance that these coins were struck at one of the local mints in the region, most likely controlled by the Patwardhan Sardars.

270 Jamgaon, Silver Rupee, 11.62g, "Chandwadi" type, in the name of Shah Alam II, with inverted Devanagari letter "Ja" on reverse, struck under the authority of the Sindhias in late 18th century (Unlisted in M&W or Lingen-Wiggins). Removed from loop, test mark on edge. Very fine, extremely rare.

The mint at Jamgaon was run during the very last years of 18th century by the Sindhias to provide money for their army, which was stationed around Pune. The type of the Rupee was 'Chandwadi' and modelled on the coins of Wafgaon mint, which was located close to Jamgaon and was run by the Holkars. The letter 'Jo' on the reverse stands for 'Jotiba', or 'Jotiswaroop' who is the family deity of the Sindhias.

274 Phulgaon, Silver Rupee, 11.08g, "Ankushi" type, in the name of Shah Ali Gauhar struck at Phulgaon (M&W# T1). Very fine+, extremely rare.

Phulgaon, located on the Bheema River to the East of Pune, caught fancy of Bajirao II, the Maratha Peshwa in 1812 and he decided to make it a pleasure resort. He encouraged several Brahmin families to settle there and ordered construction of mansions and markets. As a part of this urbanisation scheme a mint also appears to have been run at Phulgaon. The additional symbol is clearly of a Hibiscus flower which is associated with Ganesha – it creates a pun on the name of the mint-town and a reference to the Peshwa's patron deity.

Realised ` ..... Estimate: ` 30,000-40,000

275 Poona- Muhiyabad, Silver 1/4 Rupee, 2.57g, in the name Shah Alam II, Ankushi symbol (KM# 122). Extremely fine, rare.

The coin has a letter on obverse which looks like 'Ma' in Devanagari, but a comparison with other coins suggests that it is actually the letter 'Shri' engraved in a clumsy way. Both these varieties are not listed in Maheshwari & Wiggins.

 These mohur's were published by Jan Lingenin JONS No 202. According to him, they were struck to celebrate the wedding of Maharaj Kumari of Karauli to the Rao Raja of Bundi, Bishen Singh (Maharaja of Bundi from 1804-1821), in 1785. It is likely that the coins were distributed as a 'good luck' objects to the attendees. As such the coins were made into jewellery. Most coins of this kind recently surfaced on the market have the mount removed. This one, however, retains it and it adds considerably to the originality of the object.

Similar Rupees were listed by P.P. Kulkarni ('Coinage of the Bhonsla Rajas of Nagpur', p. 135, Type 19). The calligraphy of the coins bears a striking similarity to the East India Company's coins of Murshidabad / Calcutta mints. It is not certain who was behind their issue; if the mint-name is 'real', the Bhonslas remain the best contenders but if it is a pseudo-mint name, i.e. the coins are struck at a place further North into the British realms they could well be East India Company issues. However, more proof is needed to substantiate this position.
