SHRI. VIJAY KANTICHANDRA PAL
28th September 1953 – 4th June 2019

Dear Patrons,

We are presenting here "Business Stock / Part of Collection" of My Dear friend late Shri Vijay Pal. His sudden demise put everyone known to him in deep shock. A very gentle, soft spoken and somewhat reserve person, hails from a very decent business family. 20 / 25 years ago we used to go for coin hunting in remote areas very often. In guidance of late Shri S. M. Shuklaji, Vijayji built a fantastic collection of Western Kshtrapas, He also collected silver coins of Mughal emperor Jahangir. Both of his collections he sold a few years ago.

He's interest was in Glass Antiques, specially chandeliers. Lately, his business interest was more on Copper Coins / Fancy Numbers, Star Series Bank Notes etc. Putting his business stock in Auction is the only way left for his family to get fair value of his accumulated coins through-out the years. This work would not be possible without selfless & great help of my dear friend Advocate Sunil Govind Karandikar. He from a very big mess of coins, segregated coins, made the lots, and also did valuation of coins. To get a fair valuation of coins to Pal Family, Advocate Sunil spent his valuable time to see Mr. Pal's coins to be catalogued properly. I, from the bottom of my heart thank Advocate Sunil Govind Karandikar for his valuable & selfless service. We are also thankful to Pal family specially Mr. Mitul Pal (son of late Shri Vijay Pal) to put trust on us.

This is a golden opportunity for collectors & dealers. Apart from Late Shri Vijay Pal collection we have 300 Lots of others property including Gem rarities of Ancient, Mughals, Maratha's and other selected coins.

We personally advise collectors / dealers to study & view lots personally for better understanding of lots on offer.

 Issued under the authority of Mirza Najaf Khan as governor, AH 1192 corresponds to AD 1778, which was quite an eventful year in the history of the area around Delhi. The emperor Shah Alam II appointed Mirza Najaf Khan as his trusted regent against the constant threat of Marathas, Jats, Sikhs. Together with other Iranian noblemen of his camp, Najaf Khan managed to achieve control of the many areas in the immediate vicinity of Delhi, such as the Braj, the Haryana plains, the Upper Doaba and Agra. He managed to win back Agra from the Jats in 1776. The coin is struck during his tenure as the governor of Akbarabad province, and is among the earliest issues with the Fish Mint mark.

The mint at Jamgaon was run during the very last years of 18th century by the Sindhias to provide money for their army, which was stationed around Pune. The type of the rupee was 'Chandwadi' and modelled on the coins of Wafgaon mint, which was located close to Jamgaon and was run by the Holkars. The letter 'Jo' on the reverse stands for 'Jotiba', or 'Jotiswaroop' who is the family deity of the Sindhias.

- 470 Muhiyabad Poona, Gold Mohur, 11.04g, "Hali Sikka" type, in the name of Shah Alam II, RY 12, Obv: Usual legend of Shah Alam II, Rev: "Julus" formula with mint-name and symbol of "10" as seen on a cobra hood (identified as 'scissors' in old catalogues). Very fine+, exceedingly rare.

The earliest minting activity on behalf of the Peshwa is known to have been undertaken during the short and ill-fated reign of Peshwa Narayan Rao when Dullabh Set Govindji, a banker of Pune was given a license to operate a mint. The coins he produced were to be rupees and mohurs, to be known as 'Shet shahi' coins after his name. All coins of this early issue are very rare. They bear the RY of the Mughal emperor, with his name spelled as 'Shah Alam'. The calligraphy is of a good standard and the mint-name is inscribed as 'Muhiyabad' with 'Y' and 'A' of '-abad' being ligated. Subsequent issues, struck after the murder of the Peshwa in 1773 and installation of the 'Council of Ministers' in charge, had the name 'Shah Ali Gauhar' on them.

The gold 'Shet Shahi' mohurs are exceedingly rare. One was offered in the 'Skanda' collection auction by Spink-Taisei in 1991 and the same was listed earlier by Maheshwari and Wiggins. Since then, no other pieces have turned up on the market in an auction.

- 490 Central Malwa- Bhopal- Raisen- Vidisha area, Copper Kaccha Paisa, 11.91g, Counter stamped, Chaklah Bari Mint, AH 1240, with Devanagari letter "Shri". Extremely fine, extremely rare.

These coins were struck in Central Malwa in response to provide emergency small value currency for labourers working in cotton and / or opium cultivations in early 19th century. Bari is a village now located in Raisen district, south of the historic Raisen fort. Presently much of the old village is submerged in a dam project. But in 19th century it was a regional hub ('Chaklah' or market town, as the coin legend suggests).

The bronze medal illustrated is a 19th century restrike. Admiral Comte Pierre André de Suffren de Saint Tropez (1729- 1788), was a French naval officer best known for his campaign in the Indian Ocean in which France and Britain contended for supremacy. In 1780, during the American War of Independence, the Dutch allied themselves with France and entered into the war against Britain. Dutch possessions became legitimate British targets and the naval commander, George Johnstone, was ordered to lead an expedition to capture the Dutch settlement at the Cape of Good Hope. De Suffren learned of this and surprised the British fleet at anchor in Porto Praya, Cape Verde Islands, on 16 April 1781. The battle was indecisive but de Suffren was able to gain the advantage and his ships reached the Cape on 21 June. Thus reinforced the Cape was defended against Johnstone when his ships arrived in July.
